Figurative language in the alchemist quotes

Video (Stop) Play Quotes or quotations are sentences and lines taken from some literary works to show how they represent universal ideas and themes. These quotation marks are often quoted during ordinary conversations and special articles and speeches. Paulo Coelho alchemist has famous quotes given in various situations. These quotes are often quoted and mentioned in different situations. Some of the key quotes from the alchemist are analyzed below. Quotes alchemistQuote #1Ja I became a monster today, and decided to kill them, one by one, they could only realize after most of the herd was slaughtered, thought the boy. They trust me, and they have forgotten how to rely on their instincts, because I led them to feed. Part of ISantiago thinks about the herd of sheep he aspires to and earns a living. He asks about the possibility that half of the herd would be eaten by a monster within a few moments. It will be too late to realize the danger and anticipate it. Sheep will learn the reality after being slaughtered. Until then, the herd would not be worried because they trust Santiago as their shepherd. The animals also believe that he will protect the herd from wildlife and provide food. The #2Tas is a force that seems to be negative but actually shows how to realize your destiny. It prepares your spirit and your will, because there is one great truth on this planet: who you are, or whatever it is that you do when you really want something, it is because this desire arose in the soul of the universe. It's your mission on Earth. I-Melchizedek speaks of the World Soul. While it might seem negative, it shows the origin of all things. He says that someone wants or does not want it, it comes from one great source or soul. He calls it the Soul of the World. Later, it becomes a Personal Legend for that person. The speaker also says that when a person has a strong desire, he or she can make it a mission to achieve it. This is how people realize their destiny through this Soul.Quote #3Un, if you want something, all the universe conspires to help you achieve it. Part-IThe above quote is one of the most famous and most quotes in the world. Melchizedek believes that when a person wants something and tries to achieve it, everything becomes his companion. Conspiracy is a negative word often used when someone is plotting to overthrow the government. Here, however, it is used as an irony. Here the writer wants to encourage readers that if we are committed to have something bad, the universe will make things possible by getting the right people at the right time. It also means that all situations will be for our benefit. Quote #4Anglis was disappointed. Years of research, magic symbols, strange words and laboratory equipment... none of this had impressed the boy. His soul is too primitive to understand these things, he the narrator introduces the thoughts of an Englishman who thinks he has n't impressed on the young boy, Santiago. He is disappointed to know that his whole research, his use of magic, Abracadabra and laboratory tools are not him. He couldn't capture the boy's attention. The Englishman also things, santiago soul is probably too old. The #5Pastástiet the heart that fear of suffering is worse than the suffering itself. And that no heart has ever suffered when it goes in search of their dreams, for every second of search is the second meeting with God and with eternity. Part 2This lines are santiago self-gatherings. He thinks he should tell his heart that fear is bad than actual suffering. Therefore, when the heart realizes its dreams, it does not suffer from anything, including fear. This is because the search for this dream of the heart is actually a search and a subsequent meeting with God and eternity. The #6Katra search begins with beginner's luck. And each search ends with the winner's success being seriously tested. Part IIAuth is speaking to Santiago, warning him of the challenges he will face in the future. He also encourages him that beginners always find success when they start looking for something. However, when they are going to end the search, success is tested. Consequently, the person has to go through many trials and tribulations. This is how a person becomes victorious. Quote #7Ja a person living his destiny, he knows everything he needs to know. There is only one thing that makes the dream impossible to achieve: fear of failure. Part II The Alchemist continues to talk to Santiago. Here, the alchemist believes in himself and knows his destiny. He also accepts that he can do anything. So, he can turn himself in the wind or create the illusion of it. In other words, he means that if he has a fear of failure, he cannot succeed. The #8Més were all with the same hand, and we have the same soul. I want to be like you, able to reach every corner of the world, cross the sea, blow away the sand that covers my treasure, and make the voice of a woman I love. Part IIIHere, Santiago speaks to the wind. He claims that the soul itself lives throughout the universe. He tells the wind that he wants to be like her to cross the sea and go anywhere in the world. He also adds that he wants to get the treasure and the woman he loves. In fact, he wants to travel fast and far like the wind. Quote #9Tà is true: life is truly generous to those who exercise their Personal Legend. EpilogueThit is the last thought santiago. These lines summarize your entire philosophy of life. This means that if a person performs his Personal Legend, he succeeds. Life is also kind to a person who works hard to achieve their goals. In #10Tad he remembered that he had to get to Tarifa so he could give one-tenth of his treasure to a gypsy woman, as he had promised. Them are really smart, he thought. Maybe it was because they moved around so much. Epilogueit is the last thought of Santiago at the end of his journey. As he has discovered the treasure he has then, he now remembers that gypsy woman who told him about this dream and encouraged him to receive it. He thinks these Gypsies are very smart, probably because they never stay in one place. He also means that travel is a good way to gain wisdom and treasure. 1. Perspective Definition: The perspective from which the speaker writes or tells the narrative or provides information quote: It is I who dared to do so, said the boy (Santiago). He was reminded of the image of Santiago Matamoros (himself) mounted on his white horse, with infidels beneath his claws. Comment: This book is said in the third point of view. This means that the story is not the one who is the hero of the story. You never really know what Santiago was thinking or feeling because he wasn't telling the story. 2. Foreshadowing Definition: A literary device in which the writer gives a pre-hint of what will come later in the story. Foreshadowing often appears at the beginning of the story or chapter and helps the reader develop expectations for future events in the story. Quote: And this is my interpretation: you have to go to the pyramids of Egypt. I've never heard of them, but if it was the child who showed them to you, they would exist. There you will find a treasure that will make you a rich man. (Coelho, 14, 20-23) (Coelho, 14, 20-23) Comments: Coelho uses it as a kind of captivating audience for attention through the supernatural, but he hasn't given up the whole plot, and so it's not a legit phrase story to give away to the ending. 3. Mine clearance Definition: giving something other than human qualities Quote: The boy felt jealous of the freedom of the wind ... (28) Comment: Coelho uses this device because it allows him to connect nonhuman forces to the issue of human life. 4. Definition of a metaphor: a speech piece in which a term or phrase is used for something to which it is not literally applicable to suggest a similarity. Quote: The desert is a capricious lady, and sometimes she drives men crazy. (71) Comment: In connection with this quote, the metaphor was used to determine the meaning and determination of the danger of the desert, expressing that everyone needed to listen carefully to him and follow his instructions. It's effective because comparing the desert with a capricious lady, which means that a woman is unusual and sudden, he's expressing exactly how tough the desert can be and providing comparisons widely understood. 5.Symbolism Definition: The use of symbols to capture ideas or properties Quote: If you can't read the omens, they will help you to do so. Comments: Symbolism is used throughout the book, everything is recorded either as a good sign or as a bad one. One.
